Abby and Rose went over to Nancy's yard to play.
"We can play in my tree house!"

"Hurry up!" called Nancy.
“Wow! What a neat place!” said Abby.

“Let’s make a club!” said Rose.

“We can call it the Three Girls Club.”
Club and three faces on the paper.
Abby painted THREE GIRLS.
Rose got out paints and paper.

THREE GIRLS CLUB
Holly looked down. She hung her head.

"Hi!" called Holly. "Can I climb up?"

Nancy said, "We have a club. It's called the Three Girls Club. You would make Four."
shouted Rose.

"Now we are the Girls Club!"

painted a face.

Abby crossed out THREE and

"Just Girls Club?"

"Well," said Nancy, "how about

Three Girls Club!"
David frowned. He kicked the dirt.
"Girls, and you aren't a girl." "Well," said Nancy, "this is a club for...
"Hi," called David. "Can I climb up?"
said Rose. "Now we are the First Grade Club!"

Then she painted a fifth face. "First Grade. Abby crossed out GIRLS and painted Grade Club?" "Well," said Nancy, "how about the First

"Three Gra..."
Tom scowled.

"Well, said Nancy, "this is the first Grade Club, and you aren't in first grade." Can I climb up?"

"Hi, called Nancy's big brother,
chuckled Rose. "Now we are the All Grades Club!"
"Then she painted a sixth face. and painted All. Abby crossed out FIRST, added on S.

“Hi,” called Abby’s little sister. “Can I come up?”

"Well," said Abby, "we have a club. It’s called the All Grades Club, and you aren’t even in kindergarten!"
Then she painted lots of faces.

Abby crossed out all grades and about just calling it the Every Kid Club.

"It's getting crowded, said Rose. "How
